

School of Arts Learning and Teaching Symposium 'Inspirational Teaching: Sharing Practice'

Monday 15 September 2014, Oak Suites 1&2

Afternoon sessions, 12:45pm-5:15pm, Oak Suites 1&2

from around 13:00

Lunch

13:30 Registration & Welcome

13:40 Speaker session

- Dr Russell Mason – 'Why bother writing feedback when students never read it?'
- Lois Davis – 'Continuous Assessment in Creative Practice'

14:30 Discussion workshop 1: Sharing good practices in learning and teaching

15:15 Coffee/Tea

15:45 Roundtable session: Inspirational teaching – students' perspectives

- With student panellists Angela Hook (Music MMus), Jessica Onacko (Music MMus), and Andy Plom (BA Theatre Studies)

16:15 Discussion workshop 2: Looking forward to the 2014–15 academic year

17:00 Wrap-up

17:15 End

Additional morning opt-in training sessions, 15DK00 (Duke of Kent Building)

11:00 – 13:00 Online feedback and marking using Grademark and SurreyLearn (Anne Irving and Darren Gash) – please note that the afternoon sessions will start at 13:40 following a brief welcome, to give you sufficient time for lunch

The Library induction/tour and Aspire reading lists training (both with Miriam Tarron) have been postponed to a later date, so as to be able to include new appointees in these sessions.

Training on SurreyLearn (Anne Irving), Rhythmyx (central sessions), and Symplectic/Open Access (Dr Marcela Acuña-Rivera) will also be arranged separately by e-mail.